

The current "Do Not Call List" in Wisconsin should not be altered in any way and especially not by the Banking Industry. If anything the fines imposed by those who do call numbers on the list should be increased substantially for current levels.

It is my phone for my use - not the use of a marketing department!!!

Thanks for listening,

D.P. Kempen